

An Original Program from the Creator & Producer of the Hit Series "The Pet Psychic"

IN THIS WORLD THERE ARE THOSE WHO SHMOOZE
AND THOSE WHO DON'T.
FOR THOSE WHO DON'T THERE'S...

"Shmooze with Ester Goldberg" is a revealing and hilarious television series that meanders somewhere between being somewhat serious and probing to entertainingly funny and refreshing. This is definitely not your everyday, run-of-the-mill, interview show. Ester will meet and "Shmooze" with Washington's movers and shakers, show biz celebrities in LA and NY and sports figures around the country, BUT she'll do it in her own special way. Ester kvels, "I'm like everyone's favorite aunt. People seem to tell me things that they never tell anyone else. They just seem to trust me. What can I say, it's a gift – WHO KNEW?"

Ester will bring her interview subjects to the edge and then "gently" nudge them over it. And she does it with a smile and style all her own. Her subjects will never know what hit them. Nothing is too taboo or politically incorrect for this older, naïve Jewish diva, as she probes deeply into their lives. Because of her personality, interview skills and good nature, Ester can get away with almost anything, while making "Shmoozing" fun and entertaining.
