

Michael Airington delights audiences as his alter ego, Paul Lynde, in his new stage revue at Bally's Las Vegas, The Paul Lynde Show.

Photo Credit: Denise Truscello

Over at Bally's, everyone's favorite center square Paul Lynde came back to Vegas in The Paul Lynde Show, now officially open inside the Windows Showroom. Comedian and celebrity impersonator Michael Airington performs as Lynde in this one-man show based on the comedian's 1976 live theater production of the same name and features voiceovers from the Master of The Hollywood Squares himself, Peter Marshall, as well as an all-star three-man band comprised of musical director Keith Thompson and Bronx Wanderers stars Vinny Adinolfi and Fernando Torte.